

How to Apply

1. Check the available programs, application requirements, and applicant's qualifications on the Office of Graduate Studies website.
2. Please fill in the online application form and upload the following required document files:

For both doctoral and master's candidates:

- A scanned file of the first page of student's passport.
- A scanned one-inch photograph of the student dressed in appropriate attire.
- A proof of English proficiency document (If any).
- Please provide any other evidence, if applicable, as stated in the applicant's qualifications and specific to the field of study.

For doctoral degree candidates:

- Scanned files of bachelor's degree transcript and a master's degree transcript, clearly presenting a conferred degree name and a graduation date.
- Scanned files of bachelor's degree certificate and a master's degree certificate
- Fill in the form confirming acceptance as a dissertation advisor (only for applicants from the Faculty of Engineering)
- A scanned file of your English proficiency examination.

For master's degree candidates:

- Scanned files of bachelor's degree transcript clearly presenting a conferred degree name and a graduation date.
- Scanned files of bachelor's degree

Remark:

–Applicants for doctoral and master's degree programs must have completed their degree or provide a transcript and degree certificate that clearly demonstrates their graduation date. The graduation date must be no later than the start date of the semester in which the applicants wish to begin their studies.

–If applicants have not graduated from an English program or in an English-speaking country, they must provide both the original language and English language versions of their transcripts, degree certificates, and any translated documents. All translated documents must be certified by the applicant's university or government in order to complete the application process.

–Please refer to the website for the examination schedule and attend the examination as specified.
